

CACI to Showcase Innovative Solutions to Advance Maritime Superiority at WEST 2017 Conference Co-Sponsored by AFCEA and USNI

Capabilities Include Information Operations and Electronic Warfare Systems, Communications Solutions, and Enterprise Systems Engineering

Arlington, Va., February 13, 2017 - CACI International Inc (NYSE MKT: CACI) will showcase solutions to enhance battle-fighting capabilities, improve decision-making, and accelerate the delivery of mission-critical systems at the WEST 2017 Conference and Exposition co-sponsored by the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) and the U.S. Naval Institute (USNI) on February 21-23 at the San Diego Convention Center in San Diego, Calif. The annual conference is the premier event on the West Coast for the Sea Services and their supporters. The conference brings together active-duty U.S. and allied military, government, industry, and academia decision-makers.

In keeping with this year's conference theme, "Ready for Today, Modernize for Tomorrow: How Can We Maintain the Edge?" CACI will showcase innovative solutions that support the Sea Services' capability to gain an operational advantage and evolve to outmatch future threats. These solutions include CACI's proprietary SkyTracker™ counter-UAS solution; cyber and electronic warfare systems that adapt to emerging threats; secure wireless connectivity; an analytic tool suite to visualize complex data; model-driven systems engineering and continuous integration; and modernized acquisitions processes. Visit CACI at Booth 724 to view these demonstrations and more.
