

CACI Announces ‘Solutions and Innovations for Defeating Asymmetric Threats’ Symposium

Register Here for 11th in the Asymmetric Threat Symposium Series on October 17, 2018

Arlington, Va., August 30, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that registration is now open for the eleventh symposium in the Asymmetric Threat Symposium series on national security challenges, titled “Solutions and Innovations for Defeating Asymmetric Threats.” Symposium XI will be held on Wednesday, October 17, 2018 at Valo Park in McLean, Virginia. The symposium is co-sponsored with the Center for Security Policy (CSP), the Institute for the Study of War (ISW), and the Mitchell Institute for Aerospace Studies, an affiliate of the Air Force Association.

To register, visit the Asymmetric Threat website at www.asymmetricthreat.net. Please note: registration is subject to approval, and applicants will be contacted upon confirmation of their approved registration.

This non-partisan, not-for-profit, pro-bono symposium is part of the Asymmetric Threat Symposium series established in 2008 by CACI Executive Chairman and Chairman of the Board Dr. J.P. (Jack) London and Lead Director on CACI’s Board of Directors, Dr. Warren Phillips, as a forum for furthering the national dialogue on asymmetric threats to national security. Symposium XI will discuss how asymmetric threats have expanded in prevalence and complexity, and what solutions and innovations the United States needs to develop and implement to safeguard its national security against these threats. Confirmed keynote speakers include Lieutenant General VeraLinn “Dash” Jamieson, Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance, Headquarters U.S. Air Force; Lieutenant General Michael K. Nagata, Director, Directorate of Strategic Planning, National Counterterrorism Center; and Lieutenant General Daniel J. O’Donohue, Director for Joint Force Development (J7), Joint Staff.

Important information on the legacy and significance of the symposia series, as well as prior symposia reports and thought leadership, may be found by visiting www.asymmetricthreat.net.
