CACI Awarded Prime Position on $192 Million Multiple-Award Contract to Support Navy Training

Work Will Ensure Readiness for Wide Range of Missions

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a prime position on a multiple-award, indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract with a ceiling value of $192 million, to provide training and curriculum development to the Naval Education and Training Command (NETC). The six-year contract represents new work for CACI in its Logistics and Material Readiness market area.

NETC is the largest shore command in the U.S. Navy, and is responsible for the training and development of Navy personnel to ensure fleet readiness. Under the contract, CACI will support Navy training and distance learning objectives by developing and delivering instructor-based learning and modular, scalable, interactive solutions for mobile and stationary devices.

John Mengucci, CACI's Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations, said, "CACI's experts in curriculum design and instruction offer cost-effective training that can be delivered in a variety of settings and on multiple devices. We will provide the U.S. Navy with engaging, effective instruction that helps ensure our forces are prepared for the complexities of modern naval warfare."

According to CACI President and Chief Executive Officer Ken Asbury, "CACI has developed and delivered hundreds of hours of interactive multimedia instruction for the Department of Defense and federal civilian agencies. As our government customers seek more efficient, just-in-time training, CACI is ready with innovative solutions that prepare personnel and ensure mission readiness."
