

CACI Awarded Prime Position on $174 Million Multiple-Award Technical Services Support Contract for Deputy Chief of Naval Operations

Arlington, Va., October 18, 2018 - CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it was awarded a prime position on the multiple-award, indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity Technical Services Support contract for Navy Manpower, Personnel, Training and Education (MPT&E). The company will provide data management, business intelligence and analytics, and business process reengineering services to the MPT&E organization, in support of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (DCNO). The six-year contract, with a ceiling value of $174 million, represents both new and continuing work for CACI in its Business Systems market.

CACI's support for MPT&E spans more than 20 years. Under the contract, the company will help implement a broad transformation of the MPT&E enterprise information system to ensure that its IT architecture, data management, business processes, and operational performance meet evolving mission and business needs.

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "As part of CACI's commitment to supporting 21st century sailor readiness, we look forward to bringing our extensive mission and technical expertise to this important initiative. By improving the way career, human resources, and family services are delivered, the information systems transformation will help ensure the Navy continues to attract, train, and retain highly qualified personnel."
