

CACI Awarded All 10 GSA ASTRO Contracts

Company's talent and technology to support national security priorities in data operations, artificial intelligence, and lifecycle support

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) has been awarded a prime contract position in all 10 pools on the General Services Administration (GSA) ASTRO indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract. ASTRO is a 10-year, multiple-award contract sponsored by the Department of Defense and managed by GSA's Federal Systems Integration and Management Center.

Relying on the company's impressive talent and innovative technology, CACI readily supports national security priorities in data operations, artificial intelligence, and lifecycle support, including sustainment and modernization, and ISR.

John Mengucci, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "As a prime contract awardee, CACI will provide widespread, expertise and technology across air, sea, ground, and space to protect our national interests from emerging threats. The GSA ASTRO contract is an easy-to-use acquisition vehicle designed to allow the U.S. government to quickly and comprehensively address current and future mission needs."

The GSA ASTRO pools include data operations; mission operations; aviation; space; maritime; ground; systems integration and development; research and development; support services; and training services. Learn more on the details of each pool.
