

INSA Names Todd Probert to its Board of Directors

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that the Intelligence and National Security Alliance (INSA) named Todd Probert, CACI President of National Security and Innovative Solutions, to its Board of Directors. Probert will serve a three-year term, effective January 1, 2023.

“INSA is an influential voice providing advocacy and driving innovation among the intelligence and national security community,” said Todd Probert, CACI President of National Security and Innovative Solutions. “It is an honor to be selected for the Board of Directors and be a part of INSA’s legacy of fostering public-private partnerships that support progress in our industry.”

INSA is the leading nonpartisan, nonprofit forum for driving public-private partnerships to advance intelligence and national security priorities. INSA strives to identify, develop, and promote collaborative approaches to national security challenges. It has more than 160 organizations in its membership and has extensive participation from leaders and senior executives in the public, private, and academic sectors.

Led by Chairwoman Letitia A. Long, the INSA Board of Directors provides strategic and business oversight for INSA operations and planning. The Board of Directors includes former senior government officials and senior private sector or industry leaders with extensive intelligence backgrounds who represent the government, private, and academia.

“We are privileged to have such a committed and talented leader joining our board,” said INSA Chairwoman Letitia A. Long. “Already, we have a wealth of experience and expertise among our directors and with our newly welcomed colleagues we are positioned for even greater success.”
