

CACI Selected to Continue Providing Language Analysis Expertise for the National Security Agency

Reston, Va., – CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it was selected to continue providing multi-disciplined language analysis expertise to the National Security Agency (NSA) under a $500 million five-year, single-award contract. This contract, awarded as a recompetete, allows CACI to continue delivering the expert language analysis resources that the NSA relies upon to accomplish its diverse foreign intelligence and cybersecurity missions.

“Our expert language analysts are committed to the NSA’s mission, and demonstrate ongoing innovation and enhancement to deliver a flexible, high-reward, low-risk solution for our customer,” said John Menguucci, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer. “We are proud to continue providing this vital expertise. Our deep understanding and experience ensure that our team will proactively anticipate NSA’s needs and challenges in a dynamic and evolving global environment.”

CACI will utilize its more than 20 years of proven experience in language expertise to enable mission agility and adaptability to respond to rapidly changing conditions and needs. This program expands upon CACI’s existing work with the NSA to provide network and exploitation analysis for intelligence and cybersecurity missions awarded in the previous year.
