

CACI Shareholders Elect Charles L. Szews to its Board of Directors

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that Charles L. Szews has been elected by shareholders to its Board of Directors, effective immediately. Szews will serve as an independent director on the board.

“We are pleased to welcome Charles, whose extensive experience in finance, audit, operations, strategic planning, and mergers and acquisitions strengthens our leadership team and enhances our ability to consistently deliver shareholder value,” said CACI Chairman of the Board of Directors Mike Daniels. “Charles’ extensive expertise in manufacturing and technology, spanning both the Department of Defense and commercial industries, provides us with invaluable insight into scaling our spectrum superiority market.”

From 2012 to 2015, Szews served as chief executive officer (CEO) of Oshkosh Corporation, a designer, manufacturer, and marketer of specialty vehicles and vehicle bodies. He joined Oshkosh in 1996 as vice president and chief financial officer (CFO). Later, he served in various roles of increasing authority, including executive vice president and CFO from 1997 to 2007, president and COO from 2007 to 2011, president and CEO from 2011 to 2012, and finally, CEO before retiring at the end of 2015.

Previously, Szews held a series of executive positions with Fort Howard Corporation for eight years and was an auditor with Ernst & Young serving in various offices and capacities over ten years. He serves as a director for Commercial Metals Company, a producer of products for the construction industry, and Group 1 Automotive, Inc., an automobile retailer.

Szews holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Wisconsin.
