

CACI Awarded $226 Million Task Order to Provide Expertise to the U.S. Southern Command Operations (USSOUTHCOM)

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a five-year task order valued at up to $226 million to provide expertise to the U.S. Southern Command Operations (USSOUTHCOM).

“USSOUTHCOM is a complex environment that requires proven mission, operational, and strategic expertise,” said John Mengucci, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer. “CACI’s successful past performance delivering similar support across various DoD combatant commands positions us well to protect U.S. interests while working with strategic partners to enhance national security and protect the homeland. Our professional, technical, and theater expertise will assist USSOUTHCOM in completing priority missions and mitigate operational risk.”

For more than two decades, CACI has maintained a flexible global footprint across five geographic combatant commands and U.S. Special Operations Command. CACI has amassed deep regional knowledge on the threats, opportunities, and challenges specific to these regions – making CACI well-equipped to deliver scalable, flexible, and responsive mission support that drives efficiencies, promotes information sharing, and enhances customer and allied partner capabilities.

Under the Southern Command Operations, Planning, and Engagement Support (SCOPES) task order, issued by the General Services Administration (GSA) Assisted Acquisition Services (AAS) Defense, CACI will utilize its understanding of systems, processes, and partnerships across USSOUTHCOM to deliver flexible, efficient, and responsive solutions providing integrated services that promote, facilitate, and enhance USSOUTHCOM’s capabilities.
