

CACI Named a 2026 Fortune World's Most Admired Company for the Ninth Consecutive Year

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been named a Fortune World's Most Admired Company for the ninth consecutive year, marking the company's 15th appearance on the list.

"We are honored to be recognized once again as a World's Most Admired Company, which continues to be a testament to our people-first approach, long-term strategy, and focus on enduring national security priorities," said John Mengucci, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer. "CACI's success is backed by our 26,000 talented employees whose resolve never waivers and know what it means to be Ever Vigilant. Thanks to their enduring commitment and grit, we have successfully achieved this honor 15 times."

CACI achieved impressive results for its innovation, leadership, financial soundness, and quality of its technology. Additionally, CACI's leaders were acknowledged for its #MakingMoves initiative, an internal program that fosters employee skill development, internal mobility, mentorship, and certifications to keep pace with industry changes.

This year, CACI advanced to sixth place in its category, which reflects the company's deliberate strategy, informed investments, and flexible, opportunistic capital deployment. These actions have expanded CACI's technology portfolio that sets it apart from its peers to deliver the art of the possible.

Fortune, in partnership with the global management consulting firm Korn Ferry, surveyed approximately 3,400 executives, directors, and securities analysts to compile the Most Admired rankings. A company must score in the top half of its industry group to be named Most Admired. CACI was chosen from among approximately 1,500 global companies considered by Fortune.
