

CACI Continues to Deliver Enhanced Software Development and Sustainment to Defense Logistics Agency

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been awarded a five-year expertise task order valued at up to $306 million to continue providing software development and sustainment to the Defense Agencies Initiative's (DAI) Global Model for the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA). Together with DAI's mission to transform the financial operations of the Department of War agencies, CACI is delivering the financial standardization and data transparency needed to drive operational efficiencies.

"CACI has an impeccable track record of improving financial management accountability and integrity, resulting in greater transparency and continuous audit readiness," said John Mengucci, CACI President and Chief Executive Officer. "CACI's team brings unparalleled intrinsic knowledge to DAI, utilizing Global Model software delivery, automation, cloud-native solutions, and secure data integration to overcome outdated technology and regulatory bottlenecks with reliable and compliant systems."

Under this task order, CACI will offer Agile software development, enhancement, and maintenance of current and future releases of DAI's Global Model. This includes providing functional support and expertise, analysis, recommendations, and hands-on assistance for implementing functional and technical capabilities to meet mandated standards for the financial management system.
